

These Hallowed Halls

please tread lightly

as you travel these halls

old soldiers have been here before they where called they've joined old comrades

from years gone bye past that didn't come home

when the conflict died when the war had pasted they've left us their treasures that are here to see

so you would remember

the cost to be free

made of fabric

of iron and steel

the memories you see here

memories
are of fabric

metal and steel

and will help you reflect on the soldiers

have answered the call

There not just fabric

Or metal and steel
