AMERICAN EXPERIENCE-37-mm Infantry Support Gun

37mm = 1.5 inch = one pounder, the smallest caliber field gun used by the AEF. It was serviced by a crew of between 2 & 8 personnel--infantrymen, not artillerymen, because 37mm guns were not assigned to artillery units but were considered auxiliary weapons of the infantry, and were used for close support. Each infantry regiment had 3 such guns. See:
