

USAMHI RefBranch
dv Jul 86

WWI-US Home Front

NOTE: U.S. VOLUNTEERS FOR JEWISH LEGION, WWI

On 27 May 1918, the New York Times (p. 10) carried a brief notice that American volunteers recruited by the British in Philadelphia and Baltimore for service with the Jewish Legion in Palestine were to arrive that day in New York. These recruits were to join the fifth contingent of the legion then assembling in Canada. See:

Jabotinsky, Vladimir (Zhabotinski). The Story of the Jewish Legion. NY: Ackerman, 1945.
pp. 151-60 & 164-66. D547R6Z5.